
Borglum Aide Arrives to Assist in Rushmore Work

RAPID CIT. May 4.—(AP)—L. Del Bianco, Port Chester, N. Y., sculptor, arrived in Rapid City this morning and will be an assistant to Gutzon Borglum, sculptor of the Mount Rushmore memorial. Mr. Borglum who has been in San Antonio, Texas, for the winter, and later in Washington, D. C., on business, is expected to arrive here this week-end to resume work on the monument, according to John A. Boland, member of the national commission.

Work on the monument has been under way for several weeks, under the direction of W. S. Tallman, superintendent.
